Why DIGI Mobile?

A network you can rely on, at a price that doesn't require second thoughts. We want to make telecom affordable for everyone, without cutting back on quality.

Fair prices

We're building a new network, and it's going to be smart. Making smart choices in the construction process cuts our costs considerably. So we have fewer costs to pass on to you, our customers. That way everyone wins, thanks to DIGI.

Uninterrupted TV experience

Whether you're lounging on your sofa at home watching a romantic comedy, or catching the race finale from the train: with DIGI, you can watch on multiple screens at the same time. No more fighting over the remote!

A customer service that listens

Every second counts. While our hold music is catchy, we don't want to force you to listen to it for hours. Contact our Digi Care Team, and you'll be assisted in no time

Excellent network

DIGI may be new to Belgium, but we're certainly not novices. We have already built similar networks in Portugal, Spain, Romania and Italy: countries where we now have millions of customers. And they're satisfied.

International and roaming prices

No worries when you cross an international border. Check our prices and you'll never find an unpleasant surprise on your bill.

Call or text a premium rate number

Almost all phone calls and text messages are included in our packages, but there are still some premium rate numbers that cost extra. Check here what you will pay for a text message or call to every type of number.

Internet

Download and Upload Speed

The download and upload speeds depend on your IT hardware, your internal cabling, and router.

The download speed at home depends mainly on the distance between the connection point and the exchange. The speeds stated are available when connecting via a cable. The speeds may be lower when using a Wi-Fi connection.

Unlimited Internet Volume

The DIGI Unlimited Internet offers are solely for private and personal use. The unlimited nature of the service cannot be assured, particularly in cases of fraud, dishonest usage, usage infringing the rights of third parties, particularly the intellectual property of third parties, or use that constitutes an abuse within the meaning of case law.

Mobile

Unlimited Mobile offers

The DIGI Unlimited Mobile offers are solely intended for normal, personal and private use. This normal usage allows the customer to make intensive use of the services provided by DIGI. Usage that exceeds a total of 6.000 min /month and 6.000 SMS / month or 500 SMS /day or sending SMS to more than 250 different recipients per month is considered to be abnormal. In case of exceeding this rule, the usage is blocked and no additional cost is applied.

Data

Data usage is calculated per KB. In Belgium and in European Union, once the volume of data included in your offer is attained, the extra data consumption will be charged at 0,0006€ per MB(or 0,6€ per GB). Unused minutes, SMS and data cannot be carried forward to the following month.
